

RESPONSIBILITIES OF CHILDREN'S SUNDAY SCHOOL TEACHERS

Responsibilities of a teacher are to

1. Guide children to know God and His redemptive message in the Bible, Lead girls and boys to accept Christ when they are so convicted by the Holy Spirit.
 - Guide a group of children in Bible study giving guidance to individual Bible study activities.
 - Assist the department director in Bible study activities and fellowship activities.
 - Be able to counsel children concerning God and His redemptive plan.
2. Promote, encourage, and participate in in-reach, home-reach, and outreach activities, including evangelistic visitation and ministry.
 - Visit or contact absentees each week.
 - Provide current information to the department director concerning prayer concerns and needs.
3. Cooperate with other children's workers in discovering and cultivating prospects and their families and in cultivating members and their families.
 - Assist with maintaining an up-to-date department prospect file.
 - Encourage and participate in weekly evangelistic visitation efforts.
4. Participate in regularly scheduled weekly or monthly worker meetings.
 - Be prepared for weekly or monthly workers meetings by studying the unit Bible material and suggested teaching procedures.
 - Encourage other workers to participate in weekly or monthly workers meetings.
5. Engage in training and study activities to improve effectiveness in teaching, reaching, and evangelistic witnessing.
 - Assist department director in planning, doing, and evaluating the work of the department through use of the Children's Sunday School Standard.
6. Attend and support church worship services and the church programs and emphases.
 - Assist the department director in cooperating with other children's programs in the use of children's space, equipment, and materials used for Sunday School.
 - Attend worship services regularly.