

PHILOSOPHY, GOAL, AND OBJECTIVES OF CHILDREN'S MINISTRY

PHILOSOPHY

That is you train up a child in the way that he/she should go, when they are older, they will not turn from it (Proverbs 22:6).

GOAL

To provide quality programs and activities that will enable us to instill biblical principles and values into the whole life of a child.

OBJECTIVES

- To provide positive role models for children to follow.
- To provide opportunities for instruction in God's Word.
- To provide a safe and nurturing environment where children are accepted and loved.
- To train and provide a diversified team of volunteers and paid staff for leadership, teaching, and discipleship.
- To ensure the safety and well-being of all children while in our care.
- To provide facilities and programs that are age-appropriate and inviting.
- To provide opportunities for relationships to form between parents, leaders, and children through periodic trips, gatherings, and activities.
- To reach out into our surrounding communities with programs that introduce children and families to Jesus Christ.
- To involve children in the ministry of the whole church.
